GROUP POLICY - ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

Telia Company is committed to the highest norms of business conduct. We act in a responsible way, based on our Group Code of Responsible Business Conduct. This Group Policy is aligned with the 10th Principle of the UN Global Compact and Section VII of the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises to which Telia Company adheres to.

1 PURPOSE

The purpose of this Group Policy is to set common standards for all Telia Company business regarding compliance with our zero-tolerance policy towards any form of bribery and corruption, and in compliance with local laws of the countries where Telia Company operates.

2 PRINCIPLES

The following principles apply for the activities under this Group Policy:

2.1 Prohibition of bribery and corruption

- Telia Company has a clear statement against bribery and corruption, and does not accept bribery or corruption in any form.
- At Telia Company we do not offer, promise, or give, request, accept or receive bribes or other undue advantage to and from public officials or the employees of business partners to obtain or retain business, or to encourage or reward a decision.
- No employee of Telia Company shall offer, promise, give, authorise, request, accept or receive a bribe or other undue advantage, either directly or indirectly, including through any third party. It is prohibited to contribute financial means to any third party in a way that could constitute negligent financing of corruption.

2.2 Solicitation of bribes and extortion

All employees should resist the solicitation of bribes and extortion, i.e. employees should decline requests by a public official or an employee of business partner asking for a bribe or other undue advantage.

We recognize that, in rare and exceptional situations, an employee may be forced to break our principles under threat of violence or personal harm. In cases of extortion by threat of violence or personal harm, the safety of our employees is the most important factor in taking any decision.

For further advice and support on resisting solicitation of bribes and extortion, see Group Instruction - Anti-Bribery and Corruption.

2.3 Prohibition of facilitation payments

All employees are prohibited from use of facilitation payments, i.e. payments to encourage or ensure that routine procedures are carried out or speeded up.

2.4 Sponsorship, charitable or political donations

We do not permit charitable or political donations or sponsorships as a way of concealing a bribe. It is never acceptable to make donations to political parties. Telia Company has Group Instruction - Sponsorships and Donations which clarifies our approach towards corporate giving, including specification of planning and approval process as well as follow-up.

2.5 Gifts, business hospitality, entertainment, customer travel

Gifts, business hospitality, entertainment and customer travel are only offered or accepted within the limits of local legislation and Group Instruction – Anti-Bribery and Corruption. We do not offer or accept gifts, business hospitality, entertainment or customer travel to encourage or reward a decision.

Telia Company employees can only accept business hospitality and gifts proposals within the allowed limits and if they are open, reasonable, demonstrate a clear business objective, are appropriate for the nature of the business relationship and are accurately recorded.

For further instructions on gifts, hospitality, entertainment, and customer travel, see Group Instruction - Anti-Bribery and Corruption, Group Instruction – Travel and Expenses.

2.6 Conflict of interest

At Telia Company we avoid an interest or situation that conflicts, or may appear to conflict, with our professional duty. Telia Company employees are expected to always act in Telia Company's best interest and to exercise sound judgement, unaffected by private interests or divided loyalties.

2.7 Selection of suppliers and segregation of duties

All procurement activities at Telia Company are performed in compliance with Group Instruction – Source-to-Pay, which clearly states the basic principles for a fair selection of suppliers and segregation of duties between defining needs and selection of suppliers.

2.8 Supplier Code of Conduct

The Supplier Code of Conduct includes a strict prohibition for all forms of corruption, including but not limited to extortion, solicitation, bribery of public officials, private sector bribery, negligent financing of corruption, facilitation payments, nepotism, fraud and money laundering.

2.9 Due diligence of third parties

It is important to make sure that money paid to third parties, for example to agents, partners, vendors and consultants, is not used for corruption. Risk-based due diligence of third parties must be conducted and properly documented. “Red flags” are investigated, and necessary precautions and actions taken to eliminate or mitigate the risk for bribery and corruption in relation to third parties. Red flags are outlined in Group Guideline on Third Party Due Care.

2.10 Mergers and acquisitions

Mergers and acquisitions are conducted according to Telia Company’s M&A Handbook, which stipulates principles for practicing due care and performing anti-corruption due diligence procedures.

2.11 Financial books and records

We keep accurate and transparent financial books and records, including a system of internal controls, to ensure that they cannot be used for the purpose of bribing or hiding bribery. This includes the requirement that gifts and hospitality as well as sponsorships and donations are recorded to reflect the nature and purpose of the activity. We also require and keep records of the needed approval documents and verification of third parties.

Further practical guidance is outlined in Group Guideline on Third Party Due Care.

2.12 Training

Employees who are at greatest risk of ending up in situations of corruption – especially those in supply chain, international sales, contracting or procurement – are trained in avoiding, preventing, spotting and reporting bribery and corruption.

2.13 Interactions with public officials

Telia Company does not allow gifts, apart from branded items of minimal value, to public officials. Discussions and agreements involving public officials must be fully documented.

Interactions with public officials should be conducted in compliance with Group Instruction – Interaction with Authorities, Administrations and other Governing Bodies.

These principles apply as long as they do not place Telia Company in violation of domestic laws and regulations. If domestic laws or regulations have stricter requirements, those laws supersede the principles stated in this Group Policy.

3 ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

This Group Policy applies to Telia Company AB and its Subsidiaries¹ and Joint Operations² as their own binding policy to all directors, members of the boards, officers and employees. In addition, Telia Company

¹ All entities over which Telia Company AB has majority control.

² The joint operations over which Telia Company AB has joint control and management responsibility.
